
Claudia Rattray

B.Sc. (Hons)

EDUCATION

Fifth Year Student – Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology Program Sept. 2018 - Present
Adler University
Vancouver, Canada

B.Sc. (Hons) in Psychology Jun. 2016
Queen’s University
Kingston, Canada

LANGUAGES

English

EMPLOYMENT

FPS Forensic Psychological Services Sept 2022-Present
& Psychological Health Services

Winnipeg, MB, Canada

- Supervisor: Dr. David Kolton
- Position: Predoctoral Intern
- Clients: Adult clients with clinical and/or forensic presenting concerns.
- Responsibilities:
 - Providing individual and group psychological intervention services for a variety of presenting concerns.
 - Conducting psychological assessments and writing assessment reports.
 - Working with other professionals in a multidisciplinary private practice setting.

Queen's University Student Affairs

Sept. 2014 - Jun. 2016

Kingston, ON, Canada

- Supervisor: Linda Williams M.A.
- Position: Student Mentor
- Responsibilities: One-on-one mental health and academic support for students on academic probation.

Neurotransmitters and Behaviour Lab

May 2015 - Sept. 2015

Kingston, ON, Canada

- Supervisor: Richard Beninger Ph.D.
- Position: Research Assistant
- Responsibilities: Caring for animals, preparing medication (haloperidol), performing systemic injections, testing motor function and recording and analyzing data for a study investigating incentive learning in rats.

PRACTICA/TRAINING EXPERIENCEPacific Community Resource Centre - WorkBC

Sept. 2020 - August 2021

Vancouver, BC, Canada

- Supervisor: Dr. Keith Saunders R. Psych.
- Position: Practicum Student
- Clients: Adult clients with mental health needs impacting employment.
- Responsibilities:
 - Providing individual and group psychological intervention services for a variety of presentations including, but not limited to, depression, anxiety, impulse control disorders, and mood disorders.
 - Creating and facilitating a DBT Skills group.
 - Creating a facilitating a CBT-based group.
 - Facilitating workshops related to managing emotions in the workplace.
 - Training in cognitive therapies including CBT, DBT, and ACT.

Correctional Service Canada

Sept. 2019 - August 2020

Pacific Institution Regional Treatment Centre

Sept. 2021 - July 2022

Abbotsford, BC, Canada

- Supervisor: Dr. April Beckmann R. Psych.
- Position: Practicum Student
- Clients: Adult male clients with complex mental health needs in a federal multi-level-security psychiatric prison unit.
- Responsibilities:

- Conducting psychological assessments in the following areas: Structured diagnostic interviewing (SCID-5), cognitive (WAIS-IV, WMS-IV, RBANS), executive functioning (DKEFS), personality (PAI), achievement (WRAT-5), malingering (e.g. TOMM), and self-report measures (e.g. BAI, BDI).
- Conducting risk assessments (actuarial and structured professional judgment).
- Conducting clinical interviews.
- Writing psychological assessment reports.
- Working with other professionals in a multidisciplinary treatment team environment.

Dr. Michael Sheppard Psychological Services

September 2021 – August 2022

Vancouver, BC, Canada

- Supervisor: Dr. Michael Sheppard R. Psych.
- Position: Practicum Student
- Clients: Justice-involved individuals with mental health needs.
- Responsibilities: Conducting forensic psychological assessments (actuarial and structured professional judgment).

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Aboriginal Mother's Centre

Oct. 2018 – April 2019

Transformational Housing Department

Vancouver, BC, Canada

- Supervisor: Danella Angus
- Position: Social Justice Practicum Student
- Responsibilities: Non-clinical practicum at a transition house where I helped facilitate an outreach program providing food and personal hygiene items to individuals in the DTES; supported mothers facing homelessness with child-minding, finding housing and in organizing meetings with their social work teams.

Providence Care Mental Health Hospital - Forensic Unit

Sept. 2013 – Jun. 2016

Kingston, ON, Canada

- Supervisor: Gordon Unsworth O.T.
- Position: Volunteer
- Responsibilities: Facilitating social skills groups with an adult forensic psychiatric population diagnosed with psychotic spectrum disorders, mood disorders, personality disorders, and neurocognitive disorders.

- Received safety training in a forensic setting.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Association for the Treatment and Prevention of Sexual Abuse (ATSA)

Present

Student Member

Canadian Psychological Association (CPA)

Present

Student Affiliate

British Columbia Psychological Association (BCPA)

Present

Student Affiliate

International Association of Correctional and Forensic Psychology (IACFP)

Present

Member

Global Institute of Forensic Research (GIFR)

Present

Member

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Principal's Scholarship ($8000)

Sept. 2013

Queen's University

RESEARCH

Honours Thesis (Queen's University) 2016 - Intra-accumbens injections of the dopamine D₂-like receptor antagonist haloperidol and inverse incentive learning in rats

- Supervisor: Dr. Richard Beninger, Ph.D.
- Project investigating the association between environmental stimuli and decreased dopamine neurotransmission in producing inverse incentive learning, the loss by stimuli of their ability to elicit responding.

Visual Cognition Lab (Queen's University) 2015

- Research Assistant
- Supervisor: Dr. Monica Castelhana
- Responsibilities: Creating stimuli, programming a visual search task, utilizing eye tracking equipment, and collecting and analyzing participant data.